Finds Commonwealth About Done In Powers Case.

Coils Still Tightening Around The Prisoner—Sick Juror Is Better.

Georgetown, Ky., July 26.—McKenzie Todd, who was W. S. Taylor's private secretary, was put on the stand in the case of Caleb Powers at Georgetown yesterday morning. He was subjected to a lengthy examination, and his testimony showed that Youtsey and others were ready for the slaughter of the Democratic members of the Legislature the day the Van Meter-Berry contest was decided. Youtsey was in Powers' office with the window raised and a rifle across his knees. He told of the scenes in the Executive building at the time Goebel was shot. At the afternoon session numerous other witnesses were heard, but the evidence was of a cumulative character, rather than sensational. The session was enlivened by a spat between Campbell and Brown.

Juror Kempf, who was sick, appeared in court much better. The defense will be ready to begin today.

Caleb Powers' mode of defense is believed to have been outlined by the testimony of Todd, who made a strong case against Henry Youtsey and absolved Powers from any participation in the alleged plot. The drift of the alleged movement has caused his counsel, Col. Crawford, to make a statement that he believes efforts are being made to saddle the crime upon Youtsey, but he does not believe Powers is a party to it. He also says there is no arrangement by which Youtsey is testifying against Powers. The evidence yesterday, aside from Todd's, went to show the plan of preventing a search for the assassin, and the escape of Powers and Davis, and also brought out more threatening statements by Powers.

DORRELL STORE DESTROYED.

Former Christian Countian Meets With Loss by Fire.

Mr. E. D. Moseley, formerly of this county, who has been in the mercantile business at Dorrell, Todd county, for several years, had the misfortune to lose his store, together with contents, by fire, last Saturday night. His loss is quite heavy and the stock of goods was only partially insured. Mr. Moseley conducted the post office in his store and this was also destroyed, along with stamps, mail matter, etc. It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Moseley will probably rebuild at an early date, as he has built up an extensive business at that point.

REFUSED TO APPEAR.

Latest Developments In The Piner—Ware Affair.

The Conference Committee to investigate the charges against Dr. W. K. Piner, growing out of the Ware affair, met here again Wednesday. The committee consisted of Revs. J. A. Lewis, D. S. Boales and J. W. Love. Mr. J. D. Ware refused to appear as a witness in advance of the civil trial and as no other witness appeared against Dr. Piner the committee, it is said, will report in favor of dismissing the charges against the minister. Dr. Piner is now performing his regular pastoral duties and preaching twice every Sunday.

Mr. Ware has been seriously ill for a week or more, but is now convalescent.

WHEAT KINGS

Some Big Crops in Christian County This Year.

Some of Those Who Raised More Than 5000 Bushels This Season.

Christian county as a wheat growing county ranks perhaps at the head of the list of Kentucky counties. Certain it is that when it comes to big crops we have some that are hard to beat. Below will be found a list of some of the planters who raised this year more than 5,000 bushels. The list is by no means complete, as it does not include Thos. H. Elliott & Son, Mrs. S. A. Buckner's estate C. T. Barker's estate, J. F. Garrott and others whose figures have not been obtained.

At the head of the list is placed R. F. Rives & Sons, a part of their crop being raised on a portion of the lands of the Summers estate. Read this list:

BUSHELS.
R. F. Rives & Sons	26,000
Leavell Bros.	14,000
Mrs. M. A. Mason	12,000
Jas. A. Radford	12,000
R. W. Stowe	11,000
Draper Bros.	10,000
J. D. Clardy & Sons	10,000
J. W. Gaines estate (part in Trigg)	10,000
Jao. C. Willis	9,000
J. R. Caudle & Son	9,000
E. D. Jones	8,000
G. H. Stowe	7,000
J. J. Garrott	6,000
E. A. Stowe	5,000
P. B. Pendleton	5,000

After getting below 5,000 bushels the list is a long one, and there are doubtless a number of others who raised more than that much.

The local price is about 70 cents, though many of the farmers are holding their crops expecting to realize a dollar. Most of the big planters have their own granaries and the elevators in this city also do a big business. If any other county in Kentucky can produce 15 planters raising an average of more than 10,000 bushels we invite a show-down.

WALL COLLAPSED.

New Pembroke School Building Gives Way.

A section of the wall of the New Public school building at Pembroke gave way yesterday morning and there was a general collapse. The wall was up to the second story and the heavy rains had not only softened the clay under the foundation but kept the walls from drying. The damage is confined to one side and the loss will be about $500. This will fall on the contractors, Forbes & Bro., of this city. It is feared that a serious delay will also be caused in finishing the building, which is wanted in time for the fall session.

ATTACK WAS FATAL.

Kirkmansville Lady a Victim of Spotted Fever.

A daughter of Mr. George Atkinson, a well known citizen of Kirkmansville, died at the home of her parents Wednesday night of spinal meningitis. She was taken ill just a few days before, and despite the efforts of several physicians the attack proved fatal.

She was a very popular young lady and leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

A GRAVE DOUBT.

Presented itself to the mind of a Bachelor Maid.

There's a colony of bachelor maids in a flat uptown, and while they have during the six months of their existence as such been enthusiastic over their condition of freedom, one of them has paused, as it were, to reflect. She has not said anything, but she has kept up a dickens of a thinking, and the other day one of her compatriots discovered her in a brown study.

"Hello!" she exclaimed after the manner of bachelor maids, "you seem to have a weight on your mind."

"I have," was the rejoinder.

"Anything serious?"

"It is to me."

"What is it? I suppose you can tell me, can't you?"

"Certainly. I was thinking how long it would take for a bachelor maid to become an old-maid maid. Have you any idea?"

"Um—er," hesitated the other girl, "well, no, I haven't. I never quite thought of it in that way before."

At present that particular colony of "b. ms." is more or less perturbed in mind.—N. Y. Sun.

Awarded a Victoria Cross.

The man who looks after the coats at the British museum has a Victoria cross. His name is Hook, and he won the decoration in the Zulu campaign. For the space of four hours Hook and ten companions held the hospital wards at Rorke's drift against the repeated assaults of numbered Zulus. When ammunition ran out they defended the doorway with the bayonet, piling the dead up as a barricade in every lull in the fighting. Although the savages succeeded in setting the place on fire, Hook and his companions rescued the wounded, but it was only after 12 hours' incessant fighting that the Zulus finally drew off. No less than eight Victoria crosses were given on account of the affair at Rorke's drift.

POPULAR AND WISE.

Congressman Hitt as a Statesman and Friend of Statesmen.

Began Life as a Chicago Newspaper Reporter—How He Came to Congress—His Record on all Diplomatic Matters.

If Representative Robert Hitt, of Illinois, were to compile his reminiscences the result would be a volume of extraordinary interest. Not only has he figured prominently in national and international affairs for nearly a generation, but he has enjoyed personal relations of a peculiarly close character with more men of eminence perhaps than any other man of his day.

Long before the war, says the Washington Star, when a mere boy, he was attached to Abraham Lincoln in a way that gave him enviable facilities for studying the processes of Lincoln's mind. He was a stenographer and a newspaper reporter for the Chicago Tribune, and throughout the memorable debate between Lincoln and Douglas, preceding the latter's election to the United States senate, young Hitt followed Lincoln, taking down in shorthand every word that publicly fell from his lips. These famous addresses which made Lincoln's national reputation, and which, more than anything else, contributed to his election as president, owe their permanent and enduring form to the youthful reporter's notes, the original of which the congressman still hoards among his literary treasures. Lincoln called him "Bob," and was fond of the boy.

After the war Mr. Hitt came to Washington as a clerk of a congressional committee and had an opportunity to become acquainted with the great statesman of the reconstruction era.

His good luck sent him to Paris in 1874, just after the Franco-Prussian war, as secretary of legation, and in charge of affairs at interim. History

ROBERT ROBERTS HITT.

(Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.)

was being made rapidly in the French capital in those days, and Mr. Hitt spent seven years in Paris, a period which was closely packed with important events. He returned to Washington in 1881 to become assistant secretary of state, and the next year was elected a member of the house of representatives. All through his career in congress he has been conspicuous in the discussion of international questions, and now, as chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, he is regarded as a diplomatic authority without a peer.

Mr. Hitt has had the good fortune to cement friendship more firmly than almost any other man now in public life. He was Blaine's closest friend in Washington. In the concluding years of Blaine's life Hitt was the man in whom he confided most and was often to be found in the historic old mansion on Lafayette square.

At the same time that he enjoyed these affectionate relations with the great secretary of state he was the best friend of Speaker Reed, Blaine's bitterest enemy in public life. And no finer tribute could be paid to the delicate tact of the Illinois representative than that he should have continued for years such a relationship with two such men without losing the confidence of either.

In Mr. Hitt's house in K street is a room which is devoted to the memory of Blaine. The walls are covered with pictures of the Maine leader, with autograph letters and all sorts of relics which bring Blaine to mind. Elsewhere in the house are Lincoln relics, and stored away somewhere in places where they will be found some time and brought to light are scores and hundreds of confidential letters from whom names need not figure in history.

Mr. Hitt is of medium height, of modest bearing and one of those in public life, not too much interested in a gentleman always. His voice is soft and modulated; his manner is frank and friendly, although he never forgets the diplomatic proprieties; his conversation is stored with information and anecdote, and yet he has never been known to reveal a thing which was to be kept in confidence. He makes no pretensions to oratory and is not much of a politician.

Where Lafayette is Buried.

"We visited the convent du Sacre-Coeur, in the Rue de Picpus, where La Fayette is buried," writes "Edith" from Paris to the "Ladies' Home Journal." "Here birds of passage, like ourselves, seldom come. At the end of a rose-grown garden is a little cemetery, where bearers of some of the oldest names in France have been laid. Now only descendants of those who died on the guillotine are eligible to a grave there, and in one corner, in the shadow of the great wall, are the graves of La Fayette and his wife. Beyond the first cemetery is a second, where the bodies of 1,300 aristocratic victims of the revolution

GRAVE DOUBTS

Entertained as to The Truth of The Message.

Believed Now That China Has Been Playing For Time.

Washington, July 26.—The United States, hitherto standing alone in its policy of placing confidence in the integrity of the Chinese Government, now begins to doubt, and a suspicion arises that deceit has been practiced in the sending of the alleged message from Minister Conger. An autograph message has been received from him under date of July 4, so nearly a duplicate of the cable message received through Minister Wu that a belief is beginning to gain currency that it may have been suppressed and "dated up" when the demand came for a message from Conger. The discovery also that China has asked several other Powers to mediate causes the United States to fear that duplicity has been practiced. As a result military preparations are being rushed with energy, and the announcement is made that the Americans in Peking shall not be delivered by a Chinese convoy, but by an American relief expedition.

The belief is becoming general that China has been temporizing with the Powers and is taking advantage of the time thus gained to prepare for war, evidence of which begin to accumulate. The receipt of Minister Conger's authentic message has served only to convince England that the massacre reported has taken place. Russia is causing the other Powers no little concern. Her refusal to yield possession of the Tien Tsin railway is believed to be a scheme to prevent the departure of the allied relief expedition until the Russian expedition from the North reaches Peking. That Russia expects war is shown by the fact that its Admiral in Chinese waters has been instructed to begin hostilities as soon as he receives confirmation of the massacre of the Ministers.

A detailed report was received from Rear Admiral Kempff regarding the bombardment and capture of the Taku forts. Rear Admiral Kempff refused to participate because of his instructions from his government, though his report makes it clear that the Chinese opened the fight.

Advices from Tien Tsin tell a horrible story of the slaughter of the Chinese and the utter destruction of the native city in the attack by the allies. Hundreds of dead are still unburied and are food for the hogs and dogs. The Chinese losses are estimated at 11,000. The Boxers are reported massing outside of Tien Tsin. The temporary government of the city has not yet been enforced, and the allied army remains in control.

AGED EIGHTY YEARS.

Mrs. Orrin Green died Tuesday evening at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. C. G. McDaniel. She had been in declining health for some time, on account of her advanced age, and her demise was not unexpected.

Mrs. Green was 80 years old and came here from Pittsfield, Ill., several years ago to make her home with her children.

She had been a member of the Christian church for more than half a century and was a most estimable lady. Services were held at the residence of Mr. McDaniel, on South Campbell street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the interment followed in Hopewell.

THE FRIEND OF NERVOUSNESS.

When a woman's mind is constant, filled with nervousness, dreading and apprehension it shows that her entire nervous system is disordered and broken down. Nine times in ten it indicates that there is some special disease or weakness of the important and delicate organs which make her a woman. Nine times in ten it means that some instant and radical measure must be taken to save her from complete mental and physical wreck.

"I was so nervous I couldn't bear to hear the sound of my own voice when alone," says Mrs. M. E. Brittingham, of Davenport, Thayer Co., Neb. "I felt as though there was some one ready to grab me if the least sound was made. I really cannot describe the feelings I had, but can say I have no such ugly feelings now and I trust I never may again. I was suffering from female weakness and very much from nervous prostration."

"I was not able to do anything. I could not sit up all day. I had not set up all day since the birth of my baby, four months before I began to take Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took one doctor's medicine for four months but did not get along at all, so discouraged, I thought I would try 'Pierce's' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discoveries' and wonder Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets along with the other medicines, and I can say they have done wonders for me."

"I do all my work now and feel better than for two years. I had not set up all day since the birth of my baby, four months before I began to take Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took one doctor's medicine for four months but did not get along at all, so discouraged, I thought I would try 'Pierce's' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discoveries' and wonder Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets along with the other medicines, and I can say they have done wonders for me."

Disordered and broken-down women should write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., and learn how carefully he studies into these apparently hopeless cases. He will send without charge, (in a plain sealed envelope) the best advice of a capable, experienced physician.

His condition, however, is still quite serious.

FRANK RIVER, Master Commissioner.

RECRUITS FOR THE PULPIT.

Have Come from the Banks of the British Army.

Quite independently of such well-known ex-soldier clergymen as the present Archbishop of York and one of his immediate predecessors in that dignity, there have been historical and most romantic cases where the change has been brought about on the very battlefield itself.

Perhaps the best known of these cases is that of the late Lieut. Rochfort, of the British army. In the second Chinese war Gen. Sir Hope Grant and his staff were surprised by a party of Tartar cavalry, but Lieut. Rochfort happened to be at hand with a field piece, and made deadly havoc and carnage among the Tartars. This seems to have so affected him, however, that at the first allowable moment he threw down his arms and took up mission work in China. He has left a remarkable book, in which he declares that the whole effort of his life was to blot out the memory of the bloodshed he had effected.

This was precisely the case with a well-known Yorkshire clergyman, a former vicar of St. James' church, Bradford, who had been one of the midshipmen along amongst the officers—all their superiors being wounded—left to lead the British man of war Shannon when it defeated the American ship Chesapeake in the deadly duel that will live forever in history.

One of the most recent examples is that of an officer who spread death and destruction around him at the battle of El Teb. From that moment he has never lifted lethal weapons, and he is now working as a clergyman in the slums of Manchester. Then there was the prominent case of Capt. Wilson, who, in one of the sorties from Suakin—Egypt, 1884—held a gun against a horde of Derwishes and fought with the hilt of his sword. After an illness that began on the following day he never donned uniform again, but became a clergyman.—London Tit-Bits.

FRENCH LITERATURE.

Is Much Older Than the English or Italian.

We read in the writings of Mace, a Norman-English poet, that the French bard Taillefer went into the battle of Hastings singing of Charlemagne and Roland, says George Me-Lean Harper in the Atlantic. What he sang was probably from the Chanson de Roland, composed most likely, in some form or other, before the middle of the eleventh century. And the Chanson de Roland was but one of many epic poems that grew up in France at the same time. Thus French literature is much more ancient than Italian literature and English literature. For it is fair to admit that English literature does not begin before the age of Chaucer. The Anglo-Saxon language, although modern English is one of its bones, differs from modern English so widely that for practical purposes it is another tongue. We cannot read Beowulf or the Saxon Chronicle or Alfred without long and serious preparation, any more than we could read Dutch or Norwegian; but this earliest French, the French of the Chanson de Roland, wears the physiognomy of modern French. A French schoolboy with intelligence and patience can make out its meaning. We do not have to give it another name, as we do Anglo-Saxon. It is French.

DOG TRAINING.

Abuse Hurts a Trick Animal—Reward Him for Well-Doing.

When training your dog to do tricks or otherwise, do not kick or abuse him. A gentle tap will do more good, and he will more willingly obey your commands, than by lashing, kicking or abusing him.

If a dog cannot be taught by kindness, he cannot be taught at all. Often by striking a dog on the head you are liable to affect the brain, and again it will cause him to become cowardly and unfit for any purpose. Teach him one thing at a time, and be sure that he knows it well before you start on another.

A little piece of meat after he has done your bidding will do a great deal more good than a whip. He will get so he will like to do for you, and will not start at it as though his life depended upon it.

It does not look well to see a dog obey a command in a sneaking manner. It takes half the intelligence from a trick. Have patience, and above all do not lose your temper for a moment, or you may entirely ruin your dog.—The Southern Farmer.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Bears the Signature of J. C. Atkinson.

No word is ill-spoken if it is not ill understood.

When a boy turns his bulging pocket inside out we marvel at the quantity and variety of articles he has stowed away. Odd lengths of string, marbles, a horse-chestnut, a top, brass nails, bickery-nuts, an apple, and many more articles are gathered by this "snapper up of unconsidered trifles." We think the collection must be hard on the boy's pocket. And it is. But do we ever think of the variety and miscellany of the substances we put into the pocket of our stomach? There's the apple and the nuts, digestible as brass nails and with no more food value than so many marbles. And yet we wonder that the stomach gives out. When the stomach breaks down under strain of careless eating and irregular meals it can be perfectly and permanently restored to health and strength by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The action of this medicine on the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition is so marked, that relief from diseases is at once experienced, and the headaches, liver "troubles," kidney disorders, skin eruptions and other symptoms of a diseased stomach are quickly cured. Whenever the use of a laxative medicine is indicated, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They act in harmony with the "digestive" and assist its action by purging the bowels of foul accumulations.

PEPPER STRIP CO.
Dear Sirs:—For the past 40 years I was troubled with my stomach. About 4 years ago I was taken down with rheumatism and was not able to do a day's work for three years. All medicine seemed to be of no benefit to me. A year ago I was advised to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I truly believe I would have died had it not been for this medicine. My rheumatism is all gone and my stomach is in a good condition. It has saved my life and I cannot recommend it too highly.

Yours respectfully,

Elwood McCracken.

DIDN'T SEE THE POINT.

Senator Jones Has to Explain to His English Friends.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, was born in England and was brought to Cleveland, O., by his parents when he was a babe in arms. On his way home from the monetary conference at Brussels a few years ago Baron Rothschild gave a dinner in his honor in London, to which 25 or 30 of the most famous statesmen and financiers of the British empire were invited. During the course of the dinner somebody reproached Senator Jones for leaving England for the United States, and asked his reasons for deserting his native country. The senator, who is an incorrigible wag, replied that he was compelled to leave because of the restrictions that were being imposed upon the privileged classes. His fellow-guests looked up with surprise and his host asked for an explanation.

"Why, you see," said Senator Jones, "I recognized that the rights and immunities of the privileged classes in England were being restricted more and more every year, so, at the age of 16 months, I decided to take my parents to a country where every man has the privilege of doing exactly as he pleases." Some of the guests at that dinner haven't been able to see the point yet.—W. E. Curtis, in Chicago Record.

Starved Hair

Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life. It starves. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear, then actual baldness. The only good hair food you can buy is—

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table. It's a splendid dressing. It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have found your Hair Vigor to be the best remedy I have ever tried for the hair. My hair was falling out very bad, I thought I would try a bottle of it. I had used only one bottle, and my hair was falling out, but it is now real thick and long."

—J. N. J. MCKENNA, Yonkers, N. Y. July 28, 1900.
